English Harness Ponies Win Both Championships

British Exhibitors Successful as the National Horse Show Ends After Memorable Week's Exhibition in Its New Home Uptown.

The thirty-sixth National Horse Show ended last night in its new home uptown at the armory of Squadron A after one of the best exhibitions in its history. The thirty-seventh will be held in the same place next November. This announcement was made officially by the president, Robert A. Fairbairn, who said the change of base had proved to be a satisfactory one, though not without some weak spots, which will be remedied before next season. The chief of these, he said, is the seating arrangement, which may necessitate some extensive and expensive new construction to give the holders of arena boxes and seats a perfect view of the ring.

Largely and enthusiastically followed the final judging of the winners of the week in the championship classes, which marked the climax of the great show. Seldom, indeed, of late years have these classes brought into the limelight so many high class horses and ponies of their respective types. Mr. and Mrs. James Putnam of Farmington House, Exeter, England, who gave an international appeal to this year's Horse Show by bringing over the acknowledged best harness horse and ponies in Britain, were doubly successful in their sporting adventure by winning both championships in the pony division after a very unimpaired beginning early in the week. Melbourne Fire, champion of the London International Horse Show last June, took the highest honors at the National in the class for ponies up to 12½ hands, while Buckley Fame, slightly smaller, defeated Mighty Mite for the championship in the class for ponies under 12½ hands.

World's Champions From Abroad. These victories in competition with the best harnessed ponies in America gave the title of world's champions to the two little goers that had crossed the Atlantic with the English pair. The supposed star of the Putnam stable, failed to win a single prize in New York after having been adjudged grand champion in a class open to both horses and ponies at the greatest of English shows. But the Putnams sold him for about $12,000 to O. W. Lehmann of Chicago, which is some consolation for his unexpected defeat.

Mrs. Francis P. Garvan's Hamilton Flame and Diantius, unbeaten during the week as a pair or tandem, carried off the championship in the harness class. Mrs. J. K. Dorrance of Belle Southworth and Hawthorn Sylph getting the reserve ribbon. Flame has been shown at the National for almost a decade and has won the championship in English show in a championship class.

Mrs. Garvan's saddle pony Chestnut Blossom, twice champion of the National, had to give way to Mr. Leh-

BUNGA BUCK TAKES FEATURE A BOWIE

Beats Opponents in Gallop by Six Lengths—Dry Moon a Victor.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.—Bunga Buck, owner of Maryland's recently established horse, again proved his worth by taking home the feature, the Twin Cities Handicap, in a gallop over Slippery Elm, Boniface, Recount and Clean Gene today.

The race topped the best programme of the meeting and was run over a fast drying track. Lang was the riding star with three winners, Colando, Bunga Buck and Bluffer.

Bunga Buck carried his 102 pounds and Lang lightly. He bounded to the lead at the start, and had a four length advance before reaching the backstretch. Slippery Elm, Recount, Boniface and Clean Gene, the latter a distant trailer, followed. It became apparent early that Boniface, the heavily backed favorite, was not going to offer much contention.

He had been dull on the parade, and was not the usual fiery Boniface at the barrier. Erickson rode him a bungling race. His efforts to keep the horse, a rail runner by inclination, in the better going met with repeated failure. At the three furlong ground Erickson almost lost control as he reached for his whip in the effort to pass Slippery Elm.

Lang started the first two holes, the opening one going to Maxwell and the next to Bourne. At the third Bourne was away over the green on his approach, while Maxwell was short. They halved. Bourne won the next by laying his third close from the rough, but sliced into the woods and lost the fifth. This marked the first of four straight successes for Bourne. He won the sixth through Bourne's weak short game and he holed a 20 foot putt for a 3 at the next after reaching the green with an iron against the wind. On the eighth Bourne sliced his drive and brassie and topped his third into a bunker. A half at the ninth left Maxwell 3 up at the turn.

After having the first two holes coming home, Bourne started a rally that netted him the twelfth and thirteenth. The fourteenth the Garden City man lost with a 7 and he came back with a par, which gave him the fifth. On the sixteenth Bourne overplayed his approach, lost the hole and allowed Maxwell to become runner. Bourne seemed to favor Bourne to win the seventeenth, but his putt hung on the lip of the cup after Maxwell had clipped down from the rough. The card:

Maxwell, 102, 104, 106, 108, 110, 112, 114, 116, 118, 120, 122, 124, 126, 128, 130, 132, 134, 136, 138, 140, 142, 144, 146, 148, 150, 152, 154, 156, 158, 160, 162, 164, 166, 168, 170, 172, 174, 176, 178, 180, 182, 184, 186, 188, 190, 192, 194, 196, 198, 200, 202, 204, 206, 208, 210, 212, 214, 216, 218, 220, 222, 224, 226, 228, 230, 232, 234, 236, 238, 240, 242, 244, 246, 248, 250, 252, 254, 256, 258, 260, 262, 264, 266, 268, 270, 272, 274, 276, 278, 280, 282, 284, 286, 288, 290, 292, 294, 296, 298, 300, 302, 304, 306, 308, 310, 312, 314, 316, 318, 320, 322, 324, 326, 328, 330, 332, 334, 336, 338, 340, 342, 344, 346, 348, 350, 352, 354, 356, 358, 360, 362, 364, 366, 368, 370, 372, 374, 376, 378, 380, 382, 384, 386, 388, 390, 392, 394, 396, 398, 400, 402, 404, 406, 408, 410, 412, 414, 416, 418, 420, 422, 424, 426, 428, 430, 432, 434, 436, 438, 440, 442, 444, 446, 448, 450, 452, 454, 456, 458, 460, 462, 464, 466, 468, 470, 472, 474, 476, 478, 480, 482, 484, 486, 488, 490, 492, 494, 496, 498, 500, 502, 504, 506, 508, 510, 512, 514, 516, 518, 520, 522, 524, 526, 528, 530, 532, 534, 536, 538, 540, 542, 544, 546, 548, 550, 552, 554, 556, 558, 560, 562, 564, 566, 568, 570, 572, 574, 576, 578, 580, 582, 584, 586, 588, 590, 592, 594, 596, 598, 600, 602, 604, 606, 608, 610, 612, 614, 616, 618, 620, 622, 624, 626, 628, 630, 632, 634, 636, 638, 640, 642, 644, 646, 648, 650, 652, 654, 656, 658, 660, 662, 664, 666, 668, 670, 672, 674, 676, 678, 680, 682, 684, 686, 688, 690, 692, 694, 696, 698, 700, 702, 704, 706, 708, 710, 712, 714, 716, 718, 720, 722, 724, 726, 728, 730, 732, 734, 736, 738, 740, 742, 744, 746, 748, 750, 752, 754, 756, 758, 760, 762, 764, 766, 768, 770, 772, 774, 776, 778, 780, 782, 784, 786, 788, 790, 792, 794, 796, 798, 800, 802, 804, 806, 808, 810, 812, 814, 816, 818, 820, 822, 824, 826, 828, 830, 832, 834, 836, 838, 840, 842, 844, 846, 848, 850, 852, 854, 856, 858, 860, 862, 864, 866, 868, 870, 872, 874, 876, 878, 880, 882, 884, 886, 888, 890, 892, 894, 896, 898, 900, 902, 904, 906, 908, 910, 912, 914, 916, 918, 920, 922, 924, 926, 928, 930, 932, 934, 936, 938, 940, 942, 944, 946, 948, 950, 952, 954, 956, 958, 960, 962, 964, 966, 968, 970, 972, 974, 976, 978, 980, 982, 984, 986, 988, 990, 992, 994, 996, 998, 1000.

H. Maxwell Triumphs in Golf Final at Lakewood

Philadelphia Star Defeats Alfred S. Bourne of Garden City Club—Winner of Qualifying Round by 2 and 1.

By KERR N. FETTER.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. LAKESIDE, N. J., Nov. 19.—Through the skill of Whitemarsh Valley Philadelphia today beat New York in the last dash for the honors in the annual fall golf tournament of the Lakewood Country Club, an event which the metropolitan club has been generally rampant. In this final Maxwell defeated Alfred S. Bourne, champion of the Garden City Golf Club, by 2 and 1. Bourne in the morning played a strong game in disposing of Frank H. Hoyt of the Engineers, but in the decisive contest his work was decidedly ragged over the first nine holes, with the result that Maxwell was enabled to carry an advantage of three holes into the second nine.

Bourne was paying the penalty that usually attaches to the winning of the qualifying honors. After the morning play it did not look as if anybody would be able to hold him. He was short, they said, and he was not in the mood for a struggle, in which Maxwell accounted for Perry R. Kendall of Deal by 2 and 1, administered the right sort of tonic iron against the inner rap, and he had risen by the time the final round was off, and it seemed, affected the game of Bourne a good deal more than he did that of the afternoon star. Maxwell generally outdrew the Lakewood Islander, and added to this, the latter was struggling to remove from his game a slice which crept in early.

Four good nines the first two holes, the opening one going to Maxwell and the next to Bourne. At the third Bourne was away over the green on his approach, while Maxwell was short. They halved. Bourne won the next by laying his third close from the rough, but sliced into the woods and lost the fifth. This marked the first of four straight successes for Bourne. He won the sixth through Bourne's weak short game and he holed a 20 foot putt for a 3 at the next after reaching the green with an iron against the wind. On the eighth Bourne sliced his drive and brassie and topped his third into a bunker. A half at the ninth left Maxwell 3 up at the turn.

After having the first two holes coming home, Bourne started a rally that netted him the twelfth and thirteenth. The fourteenth the Garden City man lost with a 7 and he came back with a par, which gave him the fifth. On the sixteenth Bourne overplayed his approach, lost the hole and allowed Maxwell to become runner. Bourne seemed to favor Bourne to win the seventeenth, but his putt hung on the lip of the cup after Maxwell had clipped down from the rough. The card:

SCHAEFER MAKES WORLD'S AVERAGE

Defeats Cochran 400 to 0 in Two Innings, Making New Mark at 18:2.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Jake Schaefer of California, snowed under Walker Cochran to-night in the 18:2 balling billiard tournament when he smashed all world's averages by running the game out in two innings, 400 to 0.

The Iowa youngster had only one chance to shoot, when Schaefer left the balls safe after running 83 in the first inning. The game was practically won on the bank, Schaefer winning by the fraction of an inch.

Cochran played the part of a "human cussack" to-night. He missed an 83 shot, smashed George Sutton's long standing record of 100 an inning made against Slosson in New York in 1907. Cochran is the highest in the high run game on championship matches. Yesterday he ran 384 against George Sutton.

Schaefer after winning the bank started right in with his brilliant exhibition. He missed on his 83 shot, a difficult two cushion shot. The balls were left perfectly safe. So safe were they that Cochran remarked after the game:

"Why they were so safe that I couldn't see either ball."

The Iowa contender was obliged to shoot with the left hand. His three cushion shot, the length of the table, fell short by a foot, leaving the balls in perfect position for Schaefer.

Schaefer's Work Amazing.

Schaefer's exhibition fairly amazed the billiardists. It was the most perfect billiards ever played in a championship match. Another record was also established by Schaefer in his remarkable work. It was the first time on record either in a balling billiard match or a pocket billiard match that an opponent has been whitewashed.

And the fact that Cochran, who only played one game, was able to take a perfect position for Schaefer.

The previous high average for the tournament was 80 and was held jointly by Hoppe, Conti and Cochran. The mass shots, the drives for position and the delicate nursing of balls, Schaefer brought back memories of his father, Jake Schaefer, who was champion of them all a decade ago. His name was flawless. Champion Hoppe in serious danger of losing his crown to Schaefer when they met next Tuesday in the final match.

Hoppe Beats Horemans.

Edouard Horemans of Belgium, ball-line champion of Europe, who for two years has been seeking a chance to meet Willie Hoppe, the world's champion, got his chance to-night. He lost after every conceivable kind of a chance to win was defeated, 60 to 375.

The game was the poorest exhibition during the tournament. It consisted of thirteen innings and took two hours and fifty minutes to decide the winner. Both the champion and the Belgian displayed poor form. Hoppe resorted to safety play continuously. Horemans lodged a protest in the twelfth inning when Referee Lewis ruled his own cushion shot off.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PINEBURST, N. C., Nov. 19.—Tommy Harmon, the Hudson River Golf Club professional, and his brother Peter of the Scottish-American Club never gave any other pair a chance in the annual 12 hole best ball mid-south tournament for amateur and professional teams. Sutton was first victory in five starts. Sutton had a high run of 136 and an average of 34.42. Morningstar ran 37 in his second inning but went to pieces after his brilliant effort. From the sixth to the tenth inning he registered five consecutive "goose eggs". In the meantime the blond Chicagoan was plugging along with a steady stroke. He finally ran out with a cluster of ten in the inning. The scores:
